Other responses:

Duration of event—not too long.

Spacing out at luncheon tables - not crowding 8 or 10 people into one table.

I do like a hybrid approach because of time and distance I can't attend every event in downtown Fort Worth, but I miss seeing people and networking.

I would hope those not vaccinated will wear masks.

3. If you answered “limited number of guests” to the question above, how many guests would you be comfortable being around, considering people could be socially distanced?
